

MARINE WELL CONTAINMENT
C O M P A N Y

Ready to Respond

Since 2011, Marine Well Containment Company (MWCC) has been continuously ready to respond to a deepwater well control incident in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico with its Containment System. MWCC has dedicated equipment, a capable organization and the robust training necessary to mount an effective response.

Continual Training

13,616
hours

of Reservist Response Team and shore base
trainings per year

an average of

2,880
hours

of member company drills
and trainings per year

System Capabilities

ability to process

100,000 barrels

of liquid per day

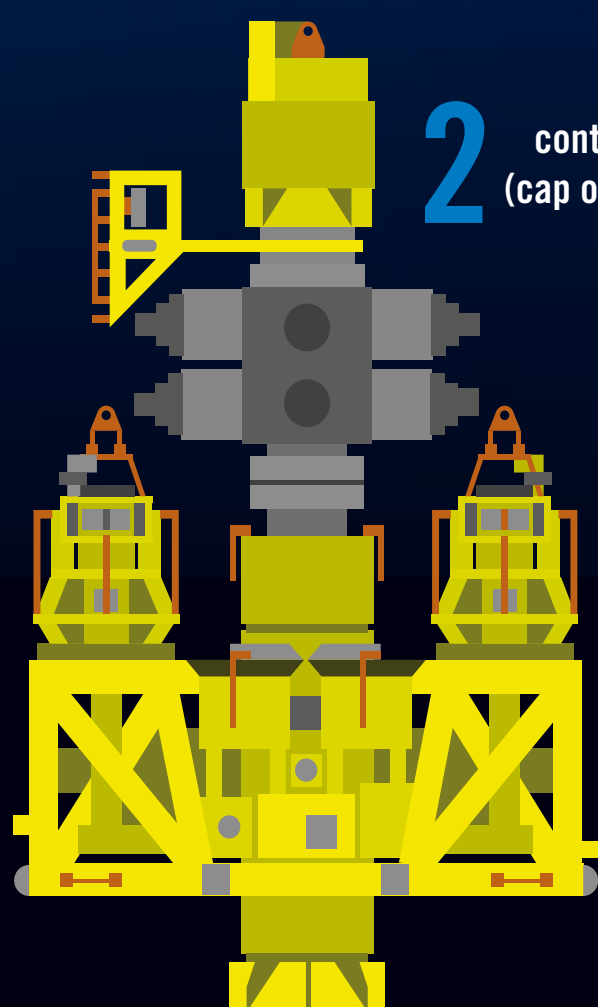

temperatures up to

350
degrees

Fahrenheit

2 containment scenarios (cap only and cap and flow)

water depths of up to

10K FT

Proven Ability

2

System Integration Tests

organizations involved

days of testing

97

dedicated staff members

2

Rounds of Sea Trials

hours working with the U.S. Coast Guard

14

days
at sea

119

tests completed
successfully

1

Capping Stack Demonstration

40,000+

man hours worked

0

recordable
incidents

operations

300+

people involved